

Your privacy online

The information handling processes outlined in this section relate to any personal information collected online via our website located at www.verypt.com ("our website").

We do collect information on a visitor's activity on the website. This is commonly referred to as 'web analytics' information, which may include (but is not limited to) information such as where the visitor has come from (e.g. referring domains, search engines, marketing campaigns), the type of browser or operating system used to access our website, pages viewed, date and time of access, the site path of the visitor, which content visitors are clicking on, which products visitors are interested in and purchase. We do not collect any personal information (e.g. name, address, email address) using the web analytics but we do collect IP addresses. Verypt does not link any 'web analytics' information to an individual. Verypt uses this information to ensure that Verypt websites are providing the best possible customer experience and providing relevant products.

We also use "cookies" which are alphanumeric identifiers that are stored by your web browser on your hard-drive relating to your preferences, which enable our system to recognize you when you visit the site. This helps us track basic visitor information so that we can better tailor our website to your needs. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies but you can disable this function by changing your browser settings if you so wish. However, if you do so you may not be able to take full advantage of our website.

We may share overall visitor trends and other generic information collected on our website with third parties but we will not disclose any personal details or personally identifiable information without your specific consent.

We do collect non-specific visitor information by means of web analytics tools such as Omniture and Google Analytics on most parts of the website. This information is related to your browser and operating system and does not include any personal details. You can find out more about Omniture and Google Analytics on their respective websites.

Our website contains links to websites operated by third parties. We have no control over the content of the linked websites or the way in which the operators of those websites deal with your personal information. We encourage you to review the privacy policies applicable to these third party websites to understand the ways in which your personal data may be used by those third parties.
